

What to include On Your OFSTED - friendly Website

A website checklist

At the beginning of 2016, OFSTED made various changes to the information that schools are required to include on their websites. Follow the checklist below to make sure you meet these new requirements

CONTACT DETAILS:

- The name of your school
- The address of your school and contact telephone number for your school
- The name of the person who deals with enquiries from parents etc.

ADMISSION ARRANGEMENTS:

(Foundation Schools & Voluntary-Aided Schools)

If admissions are dealt with by the governing body, you have to publish the admission arrangements, including:

- How parents can apply for their child to attend your school
- How applications are deliberated for each year group
- How you decide who to offer a place to if there are more applicants than places
- What parents must do to find out about the admission arrangements through your local authority

(Community Schools & Voluntary-Controlled Schools)

- If the local authority deals with the admissions at your school, your website should explain how parents must contact the local authority to find out more.
